Los Angeles* magazine names JD Cowles' All Spice Café Gourmet Hot Sauces the Best Hot Sauce Maker

Venice, CA, August 2008 – All Spice Café is very excited to announce that JD Cowles and his All Spice Café Gourmet Hot Sauces has been named BEST HOT SAUCE MAKER by Los Angeles magazine in the BEST OF L.A. 2008 issue, August 2008. Each year Los Angeles magazine comes out with its list of their favorite things in L.A. in various categories including Eat, Shop, Do, Primp, Fix, and Kids. This year in Eat – Dishes To Die For And Our Favorite Foods, they picked JD as the Best Hot Sauce Maker.

As described by a food editor at the magazine, the process for picking the Best Hot Sauce began by researching the Los Angeles area sauce makers and obtaining samples of the sauces, unsolicited from the sauce makers (the sauce makers did not know this evaluation was taking place). Then members of the magazine staff had blind tastings of the various hot sauces. They tasted the sauces by themselves and with various foods. In the end the overall favorite was JD's All Spice Café Gourmet Hot Sauces.

JD was then interviewed for the Best Of L.A. 2008 edition, which hit newsstands in late July of 2008. According to the magazine, "All Spice Café makes the best hot sauces we've ever had, in robust flavors like chipotle-garlic and cayenne habanero. Not a drop of flavor is sacrificed for the sake of heat—but the peppers will leave you panting."
